WANTED.

Any quantity of good DRY WOOD will be taken for subscription to the Daily or Weekly. Those wishing to pay in wood are requested to bring it soon, as we are in want of the same.

Rock County Bible Society.

The Rock County Bible Society held its anniversary meeting at the Congregational church in the city of Janesville, on Sunday and Monday evenings, February 16th and 17th, 1892. On Sabbath evening the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian churches held a union meeting, and the exercises were exclusively of a religious character. The church was well filled and several short addresses were delivered.

On Monday evening the reports of officers were read and new officers were elected, as follows:

President—Rev. M. P. Elnoy.
Vice President—J. L. Kimball.
Treasurer and Depository—E. S. Barrow.
Secretary—Willard Merrill.

Directors—O. W. Norton, James Sutherland, and D. D. Rexford.
The necessity of canvassing the city for the purpose of supplying the bible to those who are destitute, was felt by all present and the executive committee hope to make arrangements by which all who are without the bible will soon be furnished.

M. P. KINNEY,
Willard Merrill, Sec. Pres't.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Rogers, of the 20th Ohio regiment, brother of Isaac Rogers Esq., arrived in this city last night. He was at the Fort Donelson battle, his regiment being with the reserve, on the right wing of the army. He and his company were detailed to guard the captured rebel prisoners who were brought to Chicago yesterday morning. Capt. R. had a good opportunity to learn the sentiments of the rebel prisoners and he coincides with others in stating that while the officers appeared gloomy and expressed a bitter feeling towards the north, the men were rather gratified than otherwise at the change in their condition, after they became satisfied that no personal harm would befall them. They appear to be under a complete delusion in relation to the northern people, but are fast learning the fact that they have been greatly deceived by their leaders. There was but little attachment and good will manifested between them and their officers; they had no regular uniforms, were poorly dressed, were not drilled to obedience to military control, and had none of the characteristics of soldiers, except bravery, of which they were by no means deficient. There were twelve hundred of them under the charge of Capt. Rogers, mostly Tennesseans.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.—The following is a comparative statement of earnings of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, for the month of January:

	1891.	1892.

Miscellaneous	1,035.00	1,410.00
Total	$20,093.88	$23,057.53

For the month, from April 1st to Feb. 28th.

	1891.	1892.
Passenger	$15,451.07	$16,040.02
Freight	18,800.81	20,800.51
Mail	807.00	807.00
Miscellaneous	1,035.00	1,410.00
Total	$16,093.88	$19,057.53

For the month, from April 1st to Feb. 28th.

WANTED.—A small, comfortable house on the west side of the river—one now vacant or to be vacated in three or four weeks. Rent must be reasonable. Enquire at this office.

Of $50,000 paid the 10th Wisconsin regiment in Kentucky on the 4th, about $22,000 were returned home to Wisconsin.

THE FESTIVAL LAST NIGHT.—As was expected, the festival of No. 2 last night, at the Myers House, was well attended, and the company, as it ought, made "a good thing" of it peculiarly. The dancing hall was very elaborately and tastefully decorated, and all the arrangements were well made. Mr. Myers provided an excellent supper, and otherwise exhibited the ability of his house to entertain a large party. Altogether, this festival fully met the expectations of its projectors and its friends.

INANIMITY.—Philip H. Wells, who is well known in Chicago as a commercial reporter and editor of the Daily Commercial Letter was on Friday discovered to have been suddenly afflicted with insanity. It is supposed that his malady has been engendered by the fact that he is not a native of this city, and it is to be hoped that it is not incurable. Mr. Wells has long been known in commercial circles, and his face was a familiar and a daily visitor upon "Change." His insanity seems to be a very abrupt attack, and though not violent, is a sad visitation. —Chicago Post.

Report of the State Institute for the Education of the Blind

The twelfth annual report of the trustees of the Wisconsin Institute for the Education of the Blind, for the year ending Oct. 23, 1891, has been made to the legislature. We have not yet received a copy, but find the following notice of it in the Milwaukee Sentinel:

The trustees give the following exhibit of expenditures:
For repairs and improvements, most of which were in progress at the last report, $1,870.15
For current expenses, $3,010.54
Balance cash in Treasurer's hands, $1,232.33
There remains of the appropriation of 1891, undrawn in the hands of the state treasurer, the sum of $2,250.00, which, with the amount of cash in the treasurer's hands, makes the sum of $3,482.33 as the sum available for the expenses of the Institute to Feb. 1st, 1892; which the trustees believe to be sufficient for its requirements.
The attendance of pupils the last year has been larger by twenty-five per cent. than that of any previous year, and still, this is but a mere fraction of the number of blind persons in the state.

The superintendent makes some suggestions which are worthy of attention; among which is the propriety of making some permanent arrangements with the authorities of our State University for the admission and support of such of the male graduates as are found to possess the ability and inclination to procure a more extended course of instruction than is compatible with the scope of this institution. A similar plan has been followed to some extent in other states, and with very gratifying results. He knows of none to whom this valuable privilege has been extended who have not fully sustained themselves in college, and graduated with the highest honors. History, too, gives us many illustrious examples of persons who, despite the disability of blindness, have gained great distinction in the walks of science, and occupied honorable positions in the learned professions.

The want of room in the present shop building is regretted, and the proposition of lighting the building with gas as a matter of safety as well as economy is mentioned.

During the year Mr. W. H. Churchman, who for five years has filled the office of superintendent of the institution with marked credit to himself and benefit to the institution, tendered his resignation to the board, which was accepted, and Mr. Thomas H. Little, M. A., late of Columbus, Ohio, selected as his successor. For three years the trustees of this institution have presented it to the legislature free from every indebtedness, and the increase of pupils in the school, it is well remarked, indicates an interest in the affairs of the institute at once creditable and inciting.

DECEASED SOLDIERS.—The following deaths occurred at the Louisville General Hospital, February 14th: Robt. Moore, Co. H, 1st Wisconsin, and Gordon Rogers, Co. H, 10th Wisconsin.
